

Shabbaton at the Shore

August 7 and 8, 2009

Wouldn't it be great to spend the weekend at the shore, and observe Shabbat, and be with your friends from TBI? Great news: it's going to happen on Friday, August 7 and Saturday, August 8. We hope you can be there for all of Shabbat, but welcome you to come for any portion of the weekend.

At the invitation of Andy and Chris Moore, we will be gathering in Margate, on the beach at South Coolidge Avenue (last street before Longport) for Shabbat services on Friday night and Saturday morning, and Havdalah Saturday evening. Chris and Andy will host Friday evening's Oneg Shabbat. For lunch on Shabbat you have the option to pre-order a kosher box lunch. Other meals and activities are your own. To help us plan please RSVP by July 29, with the coupon below.

Have a place in the Margate area? Invite a friend to stay with you. Need a place to stay? We suggest you look for motels in Ventnor, Ocean City or Atlantic City.

Meet Us in Margate

Friday, August 7

7:00 p.m. Family Shabbat at the Shore

Saturday, August 8

9:30 a.m. Shabbat Morning Beach Service (followed by optional catered Kosher box lunch, must be pre-paid)

8:00 p.m. Havdalah Ha-Yam

Come for One or Come for All - See you at South Coolidge Avenue and the Beach in Margate.

Be Prepared

We'll provide:

- Rabbi Kaleb & Cantor Shammash
- Siddurim and Eitz Hayim
- Ritual supplies
- A place to daven if the weather is bad*

Bring your own:

- Kipah (or baseball cap)
- Folding chairs
- Beach mat
- Sunscreen
- Bottled water

**If needed we will join our friends at Congregation Beth Judah, 700 North Swarthmore Avenue in Ventnor, NJ 08406. Friday evening 6:00 p.m.; Saturday 9:00 a.m.*

Historical footnote: We have it on good authority that Lucy, the famous Margate landmark, is a Jewish elephant. See the chuppah on her back?
